PRESIDENT'S REPORT

President Sand Reported on the following:

- Advised the membership of the cart lease agreement that would be expiring in October and that the four carts would be bought out before year end.
- Advised the membership that the course had some security issues last year and for the members in the campground to be aware and report any suspicious incidents
- Reported that considering the weather last year, the club was in good financial position
- Thanked all the staff that worked the kitchen last season
- Thanked Kevin Finlay, the General Manager for all his hard work managing the course and organizing staffing to run the clubhouse
- Thanked Shaun Lawrence and the outside staff for maintaining the course and keeping it in such great shape
- Thanked Administrative Assistant Darlene Sinclair
- Thanked the numerous volunteers for all their time donated to the club
- Thanked the departing three board members Myrna Noble, Miles Massing and Jason Sopka for all their dedication to the club

COMMITTEE REPORTS

CLUBHOUSE - Myrna Noble

New food prep equipment was purchased for the kitchen

Happy Hour will run again from 4:30 to 6:30 pm for leagues and mixed socials

Liquor prices will remain the same as last year

Kitchen hours will be extended on weekends

GROUNDS – Jason Sopka – Course is in good shape. Weather was not cooperative at close of season last year. Course is open now and we are hoping for a great season ahead

CAMPGROUND – Miles Massing

Advised the annual site holders that when they are cleaning their sites to make sure that the leaves and trees are put where they belong and that no more junk and metal are to be put in the refuse pile as it is not a dumping ground.

FINANCE – Rob Sand

Mentioned again to the membership that there will be a cart buyout on the lease that will be expiring in October of 2019

GENERAL MANAGER – Kevin Finlay – Kevin reviewed 2018 Explained that the Club is now in control of the Tee Sign advertising Informed the membership that the Golf for the Cure tournament raised $11,925.00 and thanked all involved for organizing the tournament Due to an individual slipping on the handicap ramp, it has now been resurfaced to avoid any further mishaps Long weekends and mixed socials were all well attended September was a disaster due to inclement weather and some year end tournaments and league nights were unable to be run.

For 2019 there is going to be a push for more attendance for ladies night. Salads, etc. will be set out so ladies can choose to eat either prior to or after golfing

May 18, 2019 the club is hosting a “Welcome Back” social with a 4:00 p.m. shotgun start and two weeks later on May 31, 2019 will be the first Mixed Social night

The club will be hosting a Mother’s Day breakfast and lunch this year

Cheryll Ensign will be organizing a card night every other Friday night in the clubhouse

Victims Services is holding their fundraising tournament on May 25, 2019 and is taking registrations
